DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-24 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The present application discloses promoting a current privilege level of a processor of a computer system, wherein the current privilege level control applications instruction execution in the computer system by controlling accessibility to system resources, wherein a privilege promotion instruction is performed by reading a stored previous privilege level state, comparing the read previous privilege level state to the current privilege level, and if the previous privilege level state is equal is equal to or less privileged than the current privilege level, promoting the current privilege level to a second privilege level which is higher than the first privilege level.

Arora (US 6,393,556) teaches changing a processor's privilege level by reading a current privilege level (CPL) and comparing it to a future privilege level (EPC) and changing the value of CPL according to the comparison (see Col. 4, lines 13-48).

Arora does not teach comparing the current privilege level to a previous privilege level for the promotion of the privilege level. Arora's privilege level promotion is based on a comparison of the current privilege level to a future privilege level. All other pertinent prior art of record are not eligible prior art due to the filing date of the present application.

Therefore, the Prior Art of Record does not teach nor suggest, in the claimed combination, reading a stored previous privilege level state, comparing the read previous privilege level state to the current privilege level, and if the previous privilege level state is equal is equal to or less privileged that the current privilege level, promoting the current privilege level to a second privilege level which is higher than the first privilege level.

Applicant's arguments presented in the Appeal Brief, see page 10, paragraph 3 to page 14, regarding the claim language discussed above has been persuasive. Consequently, claims 1-24 are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
